Native workmen at the Kabului wharf followed the example of the Honoiulu strikers, and struck for more pay one day this week. They asked for a raise from $1.25 to $1.50 per per diem, which they thought was very reasonable considering the amount of hard work they are expected to execute. The they are expected to execute. Hon. W. C. Achi, member of the House of Representatives and one of Honolulu's leading real estate brokers, called at Wailoku yesterday, accompanied by Mr. Blaisdell, sugar expert, and readevoused at the home of Circuit Judge Kalua. The visitors were returning from their visit to Kona and left the Mannaloa at Lahaina and rode overland to Wailuku, and left the Manna Los at Labaina and rode overland to Wailuku, Judge Kalua showed the visitors around the special places of interest in Wailuku, in fact the liberty of the town was extended to them. Todsy, Judge Kalua is giving a luau at his Iao Vailey home in honor of Mr. Achi, as a small token of esteem for the leadsmall token of esteem for the leading part taken by the honorable member during the last term of the Hawaiian Legislature, for Mr. Achi not only helped passing appropriations for his own beloved Kona, but also for the entire group; and more especially for the interest taken by him in securing with the said of the Mani members the $30,000,000 and the Mani members the $30,000.00 appropriation for the Wailuku and Kahului water works, and Magi roads.

Had Kinci been in contemplation during the term of the last legislature and had the present Manager asked for an appropriation of $30,000.00 for a wharf and breakwater at Kibei, Mr. Achi would nave as ungrudgingly voted for it as he did for the Hilo appropriations. appropriations.

Many of Wailuku's leading residents have been invited to be present, and no doubt the invita-tion will be generally accepted. Messrs. Acti and his travelling companion will return to town this afternoon.

Manuel Souza, assistant engi-neer of the Wailuko sugar mill, died at the Malulani hospital on Wednesday of this week. He leaves a widow and a family of children. Mr. Souza has been an employee of the Wailuku Sugar Co. for about ten years and was greatly respected by his employers as well as by the Portuguese colony of this tows.
